MR. WILLIAM P. DONLON

Mr. Donlon's coin collecting activities date back to early childhood when his dad, a grocer in Amsterdam, N. Y., gave him all the unusual and odd-looking coins that came across the counter. Bill says, "If they didn't look odd enough I would let a trolley car run over them."

About 25 years ago, Bill Donlon became serious about numismatics and started to attend the auction sales. Bill became a regular at Tom Elder's sales and frequently attended the Raymond-MacAllister auctions. When I founded the Numismatic Gallery in New York City and began conducting auctions, Bill came down often. He also attended all of the Grinnell auctions held by Barney Bluestone in Syracuse, N. Y.

Proof coins fascinated Bill Donlon and when he approached completion of the series from 1858 on, he arranged the coins into sets by years, ordered red translucent plastic holders and specially printed cards and went about winning Blue Ribbons at ANA conventions at Milwaukee, 1950, New York, 1952, Omaha, 1955, and Chicago, 1956.

Mr. Donlon is a former theatre manager, now engaged with his two sons in the outdoor amusement business at Sylvan Beach on Oneida Lake where Mr. and Mrs. Donlon have a summer home. Their permanent address is 30 miles away in Utica, New York.

Foreword

This is a pleasant task.

Pleasant because the lovely coins are beautiful to behold, well preserved, and surrounded by the lustre of so many Blue Ribbon Exhibitions.

Pleasant, too, because the material is so popular and so much in demand that the consignor, buyer, and cataloguer are bound to be happy over the results.

It is nice, too, to be able to catalogue and sell a collection to which I have contributed many a fine coin. Of course it is gratifying that after 20 years of trading with me, Bill Donlon selected me to sell the coins which he had acquired over so long a period.

Now that uncirculated and proof coins have soared to new highs, the demand for circulated coins is increasing. More and more collectors are becoming interested in coins and are absorbing the uncirculated pieces, the proofs and the extremely fine specimens.

Top-grade very fines are bringing prices comparable to the uncirculated listings of just a few short years ago. This is inevitable. The supply of coins is, at best, constant. The demand is ever increasing. It is not only a matter of whether the collector is able or willing to pay the high prices for gem coins, it becomes a question of where to get these gems and how long to wait for them.

In the city of Utica, New York, Bill Donlon is, and for many years has been, the foremost numismatist. His collecting instincts sent him after the uncirculated and proof coins, but being a merchant and the object of those wishing to sell, Mr. Donlon acquired many duplicates in all states of preservation. Little did he realize that these coins would be in real demand. The increased value will perhaps offset the high premiums paid for choice coins on which he had set his heart.

This will explain the unusual offerings of quantity lots and the many circulated coins which appear in the catalogue.

I do hope you can attend the sale in person. I should like to greet you in Sunny California. If you cannot make it, then I hope you will be represented by your BID SHEET.

The last two mentioned coins sell above list, so that the set should fetch $700.00.

PATTERN CENTS

(My keen interest in the Pottern Series hos mode me observont of the collector reoction whenever Potterns were offered. Serious collectors of Potterns ore not numerous. However every collector of U.S. coins is susceptible to the "diseose" of ocquiring o few Potterns pertoining to one or more of the series in which he moy be speciolizing. Hence, the Potterns in the Donlon Collection ore offered in smoll groups, following the regulor series of the some denominotions. For the present, ottributions ore occording to the Stondord work by Adoms-Woodin (AW). All ore proofs unless otherwise indicoted.

116—AW 171. 1853. Obverse of quarter eagle/ONE CENT in olive wreath. Nickel, alloyed with silver. Reeded edge, thick planchet. $20.00.
117—AW 186. 1854. A transitional pattern sized halfway between the large cent and the small cent; designed more like the large. Copper. $20.00.
118—AW 187. The same in bronze. $20.00.

119—AW 199. 1855. Another transitional pattern, same size as above but this has the Flying Eagle obverse. Only very fine; very scarce. Copper-nickel. $15.00.

120—AW 243. 1858. Flying eagle cent, small letters/oak wreath reverse. Copper-nickel. Ex-Morgan Coll. $45.00.

121—AW 246. 1858. Flying eagle, large letters/oak wreath with broad, ornamental shield. Copper-nickel. $55.00.

122—AW 255. 1858. Small flying eagle, unlike that of the regular series/oak wreath. Copper-nickel. Ex-Morgan Coll. $57.50.

123—AW 256. Similar but laurel wreath reverse. High wire edge. Copper-nickel. $55.00.

124—AW 257. Same eagle/oak wreath with broad, ornamental shield, sharp wire edge. Copper-nickel. $65.00.

This series of 1858 cents represents a study in itself and is recommended to the collector of this series as a most interesting complimentary group. Certainly it enhances the value of the series and the enjoyment derived from putting it together. The added variety of design is undoubtedly the attraction.

126—AW 264. Similar but laurel wreath reverse. Copper-nickel. $30.00.

532—1796. A superb proof, with a delightful iridescence. Unquestionably one of the finest known specimens. It was acquired by Mr. Donlon out of the Morgan Sale in 1944. Early this year, the Clarke specimen sold at public auction for $900.00, and I can testify that the Donlon specimen is every bit its equal. This is the coin for the discriminating collector who wants, and can afford, the best.

564

564—1896-S. A splendid uncirculated coin which, in my opinion, is rarer than the 1901-S, which has been selling for close to $700.00. Not only has it been my personal experience to offer more specimens of the 1901-S, but an examination of other auction sale catalogues and price lists reveals the same information—the 1896-S appears much less frequently and must be a rarer coin. This splendid specimen will set a new world's record.

SECOND SESSION
THE WILLIAM P. DONLON COLLECTION
November 24, 1956 — 10:00 A.M.

UNITED STATES HALF DOLLARS

698

698—1794. Extremely fine except for reverse scratch. Well-centered with sharp stars, this coin was described by a mid-western dealer as uncirculated. This first half dollar is in demand, the splendid Clarke specimen going for $900.00 last May. This coin is most attractive and should bring a good price.

699—1794. About fine, scarce. Lists at $90.00.

700—1795. Two leaves under wing, 9 berries on each side of wreath. A in STATES was cut over an E which was an error. Date is wide, a lump between 5 and star; LIBERTY connected at tops by thin die line. A splendid uncirculated specimen, worth $125.00 or more.

701—1795. Two leaves, 10 berries on left, 7 on right. M in AMERICA recut, possibly triple-cut. Date is closer, lowest star touches lowest curl at two points, next star touches next curl. Another choice, uncirculated coin out of the Morgan Sale. $125.00.

702—1795. Two leaves, 9 berries on left, 8 on right. Dot below 9 in date, lowest curl through one point of 1st star, a number of die lines below chin and above hair. Roughness in planchet below neck. A top-grade very fine. $60.00.

703—1795. Similar. Curl touches one point of 1st star. Very good. $27.50.

704—1795. Nine berries on each side, 9 in date smaller, 5 low, small break near point of bust and lowest right star. Fine. $37.50.

705

705—1796. This is the specimen acquired by Mr. Donlon out of the Menjou Sale (lot 942). It is the very rare 15 star variety in as choice a state of preservation as one could desire. It is a beautiful uncirculated coin with proof-like lustre, the lightest trace of a rub on the highest point of hair. There is a die line from the bust to the rim midway between the 6 and the last star. Undoubtedly one of the finest specimens known, this 1796 15 star variety would grace the finest collection. In this runaway market, should bring a runaway price, about $1500.00.

706—1796. The 16 star variety on a rough planchet. It is about fine and very rare. Lists at $525.00.

707—1797. From the Col. Green Collection; out of the 1950 ANA Auction. About fine, although ICA are weak at tops. Lists at $350.00.

709—1801. Beistle 1B. Very rare. This is out of the 1948 ANA Sale where it was listed as brilliant uncirculated. It is a sharp, lustrous coin—I would say extremely fine—and worth about $150.00.

THIRD SESSION
THE WILLIAM P. DONLON COLLECTION
November 24, 1956 — 1:00 P.M.

SILVER DOLLARS

1028

1028—1794. Fine with some claim to very fine. The left side is unusually strong. You will recall that this first silver dollar has a characteristically weak left side. Well-centered and attractive, this dollar should bring at least $850.00. Catalogue listing for fine is $650.00 and for very fine $1200.00. If you need a nice specimen of this date, see this coin.

1029—1795. Bolender 4, Hazeltine 4, close date; eight berries on right, 9 on left, two leaves beneath each wing. A sharp, lustrous coin, about uncirculated. Lists uncirculated at $200.00.

1030

1030—1795. Bolender 5, H 5. Flowing hair in six curls. A "bar", over 2 millimeters long, extends diagonally from close to top curl toward point of 5th star. Uncirculated, boldly struck. Cost $80.00 in 1946: the W.G.C specimen was extremely fine and realized $85.00. Now lists at $200.00.

1031—1795. B 5, H 5. Another splendid specimen, not quite as sharp. Extremely fine (acquired as an H 9 uncirculated gem, hence a duplicate). Worth $135.00.

1032—1795. B 6, H 6. Six curls. wide date; three leaves below wings. Uncirculated. Lists at $200.00.

1033—1795. B 7. H 7. Lowest curl is very small and touches a point of first star. Wide date: three leaves. Acquired as "one of the finest known", and perhaps it is—it is a splendid coin with much lustre. The high spots on head and eagle's breast are not sharp. Calling this extremely fine is conservative. This variety is Rarity 4, one of the rarest of the 1795's and is often sold as the head of 1794. The World's Greatest Collection offered only a very fine specimen of the H 7. Worth $150.00.

1034—1795. B 9,H 9. Six curls, the 3rd from the top turns downward and touches the 4th curl. Two points of first star touch the lowest curl. Close date; outlines appear at top of 5 and right top of 7. Often called the head of 1794. Left branch has 9 berries, right has 8. Rarity 5, very rare. A splendid coin. extremely fine, worth $150.00.

1035—1795. B 14, H 14. The Bust Type, bust a bit right. 7 berries on left branch. A real uncirculated gem. Back in 1946 in the W.G.C. auction I got $110.00, and this beauty cost $111.00 in June, 1946. Now lists at $175.00.

1036—Another 1795. B 14. Extremely fine. $100.00.

1037—1796. Small date, large letters. Ex-T. James Clarke. Extremely fine. Lists uncirculated at $175.00.

1038—1797. B 2, H 2. The very rare variety with 9 stars left, 7 right and small letters on reverse. A really sharp very fine out of the World's Greatest Collection. Now lists at $240.00.

1039—1797. B 3, H 3. Six stars at right, large letters. A sharp uncirculated coin, mint file marks. Lists at $250.00.

1040—Another 1797. B 3. Very fine, ex-T. J. Clarke. $80.00.

1041—1798. B 13. H 13. Medium date, 10 arrows, large eagle. Uncirculated. Lists at $150.00.

1042—1799. B 3, H 3. 1799 over 98; last 9 close to bust, stars close, LIBERTY wide. The 5 star reverse. Rarity 5. A splendid and rare coin, just about uncirculated. Lists at $190.00.

1043—1799 over 8. B 3. Good-very good, very scarce. $27.50.

1044—1799. B 5, H 5. Light waves at top of date between the two 9's and to right; U in UNITED is imperfect at the upper left corner. Uncirculated. Lists at $120.00.

1046—1799. B 12. H 12. The so-called "no berries" reverse (actually there is one berry on the middle upper side of branch). Uncirculated, choice. Lists at $145.00

1047—Another 1799 B 12. About extremely fine. $90.00.

1048—Still another 1799 B 12. Very good. $30.00.

1049—1799. B 15a, H 15. Irregular date; 5 small berries: die break joins stem end to border. Die break through date and stars on left. Rarity 4. Uncirculated. Lists $150.00.

1058—1836. GOBRECHT on base, plain edge. Stars in reverse field. A lovely coin with lustrous surface but shows wear on high spots. $250.00.

1059—1836. GOBRECHT on base, plain edge, stars in reverse field; only about fine; ER in LIBERTY worn. Reverse is fine. Very scarce. Lists very fine at $185.00.

1060

1074—1847. Here is a choice specimen out of the Anderson Dupont Sale. It was listed as a proof (lot 2523) and Mr. Donlon bought it for $90.00. Today it lists at $115.00. I dislike disagreeing with the learned cataloguers of that sale, but this seems to be one of the "first strike proofs". See this gem.

1075—1847. Very fine. $15.00.

1076—1847. Good, engraved; 1860-) worn; 1872 good. 3 pcs. $18.00.

UNITED STATES EAGLES
OR $10.00 GOLD PIECES

(First issued in 1795, the eagle did nat have any reference to its denaminatian through the release in 1804. The series was discantinued until 1838 and when it was resumed the weight and diameter of the eagle was reduced, the design changed and the value, TEN D, placed on the reverse. The series cantinued thraugh 1933 and was the last denominatian to be released with praper authority.

1462—1795. A lovely coin, sharp and well-centered. About extremely fine. Increasingly popular, the 1795 eagle is selling well over catalogue. The Melish uncirculated specimen sold for $460.00. This attractive coin should bring $375.00.

1463—Another 1795. In fine condition. Lists at only $225.00 but should bring quite a bit more.

1464—1796. A splendid example, this is out of the Col. Flanagan Collection where it was listed as an uncirculated gem. It is very sharp, has a lot of lustre, so much so that some light lines in the field hardly distract from its beauty. Lists at $300.00.

Considerable controversy orose concerning the outhorizotion for the release of the 1933 double eagle ond although the government has re-acquired those known to hove been released, numismotists continue to question the valldity of the government's stand. THE BLUE RIBBON AWARD-WINNING COLLECTION OF UNITED STATES PROOF COINS

1858-1956 Inclusive

The current interest in U.S. Proof coins wos, for o while, centered on the lote issues from 1936 to dote. Storting with the Melish Sole in April, this interest spreod to the earlier ond rorest proofs of the 1858-1915 ero. At the Chicogo ANA sole in August, prices on these proof sets took o spurt, indicoting thot the boom is on ond todoy's prices will seem very low in o few short months.

If you are looking for proofs, now is the time to get yours; next month the coins will be higher. And if you ore o buyer todoy, why not buy the best? Williom P. Donlon's Proof Sets hove brought him one Blue Ribbon ofter onother.

The lost oword wos mode ot the 1956 ANA Convention held recently. Despite Mr. Donlon's suggestion that his exhibit be eliminoted from comoetition, the committee thought so highly of it os one of the outstonding exhibitions thot it oworded the First Prize, onother Blue Ribbon to Mr. Donlon.

So thot this moteriol will forever be identified, eoch hondsome red plastic holder hos been "holl-morked" with o Blue Ribbon. I om proud to offer this splendid collection. You will be proud to own some of the coins.

1858

1759—Silver dollar, half dollar, quarter, dime, half dime, 3 cents silver, small cent large letters, small cent small letters. 8 pieces. The small letter cent, acquired as a proof, is uncirculated, as is the 3 cent silver. The quarter is only about extremely fine. The others are lovely proofs, the dollar and half dollar being in great demand. The half dime fetched $55.00 in the Melish Sale, as did the dime. The set should bring $900.00.

1859

1760—Dollar, half dollar, quarter, dime, half dimes, 3 cents silver, cent. 7 pieces, also in the beautiful red plastic holder (as are all of the proof sets in the Donlon Collection.) The dime has a few halr-lines, all the others are choice. The Melish coins fetched $223.50, but based on ANA auction records of August, I predict this set will bring over $300.00.

1860

1761—Dollar, half dollar, quartcr, dime, half dime, 3 cents silver, cent: 7 pieces. The half dime is about uncirculated, the othcrs choice proofs. $250.00.

1861

1762—Silver dollar, half dollar, quartcr, dime, half dime, 3 cents silver, cent (two small spots). Scarce; 7 pieces. $285.00.

1862

1763—Dollar, half dollar, quarter, dime, half dime, 3 cents silver, cent; 7 pieces. Choice. $200.00.

1863

1764—Dollar, half dollar, quarter (rising rapidly), dime, half dime, 3 cents silver, cent: 7 pieces. $295.00.

1864

1765—Because of the extreme rarity of the 1864-L cent and the 2 cent piece small motto, this set is being sold without these two coins; each is offered as a separate lot following the sale of this set.

Dollar, half dollar, quarter, dime, half dime (rare), 3 cents silver (rare), 2 cents large motto (first year of issue), copper-nickel cent, bronze cent; 9 pieces. Should bring $425.00.

1864—L ON RIBBON

1766

1766—1864 Cent with L on ribbon. Here is one of the really rare proofs in the United States Series. It is one of the three coins which soar to new records whenever offered—which is mighty seldom. The others to which I refer are the 1864 small motto two cent piece and the 1867 nickel with rays. Own these three and you can complete your set—own all the others and you have a real job on your hands. It is conceivable that this cent will sell for a four-figure mark, but I confidently estimate it at $750.00.

1864—2 CENTS PIECE
SMALL MOTTO

1767—1864 SMALL MOTTO. Here is the second of the three elusive proofs (1864-L cent, 1867 rays nickel being the other two). A lustrous red, brown and olive gem. Really a lovely coin and decidedly rare. In demand as much as the 1864-L proof cent, this two-cent piece should bring close to $750.00.

1865

1768—Silver dollar, half dollar, quarter (last year of type without motto for latter three coins), dime, half dime, 3 cents nickel (first year of issue - rare), 3 cents silver (scarce), 2 cents, cent; 9 pieces. $410.00.

1866

1769—An important year, the motto being added on three coins and the 5 cents nickel being introduced. Dollar, half dollar, quarter, dime, half dime, 5 cents nickel, 3 cents nickel, 3 cents silver (spotted), 2 cents, cent; 10 pieces. Scarce. $400.00.

1867

1770—Here again a coin is being removed from the set. The nickel with rays is offered in the next lot. Dollar (hairlines), half dollar, quarter, dime (scarce), 5 cents nickel without rays, half dime, 3 cents nickel, 3 cents silver, 2 cents, cent; 10 pieces, scarce. $330.00.

1867 NICKEL WITH RAYS

1771—1867 with rays. Here is the one many are waiting for . . . rarer than the 1864-L cent or the small motto two cents piece. In fact, it catalogues for the combined value of the other two pieces. I sat in on an auction sale a year ago and saw an 1867 nickel with rays go for $750.00. That it will fetch more than $1000.00 today seems quite a certainty.

1868

1772—Dollar, half dollar, quarter, dime, 5 cents nickel, half dime, 3 cents nickel, 3 cents silver, 2 cents, cent (corrosion spot on reverse); 10 pieces. $330.00.

1869

1773—Dollar, half dollar, quarter, dime, 5 cents nickel, half dime, 3 cents nickel, 3 cents silver, 2 cents, cent (superb, scarce); 10 pieces, very scarce. $325.00.

1870

1774—Dollar, half dollar, quarter, dime, 5 cents nickel, half dime, 3 cents nickel, 3 cents silver, 2 cents, cent; 10 pieces. $285.00.

1871

1775—Dollar, half dollar, quarter, dime, 5 cents nickel (rare), half dime, 3 cents nickel, 3 cents silver, 2 cents (small tarnish spot), cent (very scarce); 10 pieces. Scarce. $410.00.

1872

1776—Dollar, half dollar, quarter, dime, 5 cents nickel, half dime, 3 cents nickel, 3 cents silver, 2 cents (scarce), cent (scarce); 10 pieces in the beautiful red plastic holder, as are all of the sets in the Donlon Collection. $350.00.

1873

1777—The Big Set which introduced the Trade Dollar and includes the varieties with and without arrows. The 14 coins include silver dollar, trade dollar, half dollar without arrows, half dollar with arrows, quarter without arrows, quarter with arrows, dime without arrows, dime with arrows (early uncirculated, proof-like strike), 5 cents nickel, half dime (last year of issue), 3 cents nickel, 3 cents silver (last year of issue), 2 cents (last year of issue), cent; 14 pieces, very scarce. $650.00.

1874

1778—Trade dollar, half dollar (scarce), quarter (scarce), dime (scarce), 5 cents nickel (as are all 5 cents pieces that follow, the silver 5 cent piece or half dime no longer being struck), 3 cents nickel (no more silver 3 cents pieces minted), cent; 7 pieces, scarce. $325.00.

1875

1779—Trade dollar, half dollar, quarter, 20 cents piece (first year of issue), dime, 5 cents (very scarce), 3 cents, cent; 8 pieces. $315.00.

1876

1780—Trade dollar, half dollar, quarter, 20 cents piece, dime, 5 cents, 3 cents, cent; 8 pieces. $260.00.

1877

1781—The Rarity Set because it includes the rare cent, 3 cent, 5 cent and 20 cent pieces. The 8 pieces are trade dollar, half dollar, quarter, 20 cents piece, dime, nickel (all 1877 nickels are supposedly struck as proof—this one seems to have been an uncirculated striking, something I have never seen in this date), 3 cents nickel, Indian head cent. Very rare. $800.00.

1878

1782—Silver dollar (the new Morgan type) with 8 tail feathers, silver dollar with 7 tail feathers, trade dollar, half dollar, quarter, 20 cents piece (last year of issue), dime, 5 cents, 3 cents, cent; 10 pieces, very scarce. $550.00.

1879

EXTREMELY RARE DOUBLE DENOMINATION NOTES

2009—1882. National Currency. Second Charter. $10.00 obverse and $20.00 reverse. The Citizens National Bank of Houghton, Michigan. Signatures of Lyons and Roberts. Inverted back with TWENTY DOLLARS spelled out in open field. This is the Grinnell specimen (lot 1742) catalogued as "absolutely bright, clean, crisp, unc." Actually there are light creases, but in a rarity such as this these hardly detract from its value. These notes have been listed currently at over $1500.00.

2010—1918. Federal Reserve Bank of Chicago, Illinois. Teehee and Burke signatures. Here, indeed, is a rarity among rarities. As you know, the Double Denomination Note is the outstanding item of the U. S. Paper Money series, certainly the most sought-after freak note. Here is a Federal Reserve Double Denomination Note (most are National Bank Notes) which has seen circulation. Finally, it has the $2.00 OBVERSE and the $1.00 REVERSE, a combination which I have not seen before. Search the sales records for another $2.00-$1.00 Federal Reserve Double Denomination Note—I doubt you will find one listed. This specimen is a prized item valued by Mr. Donlon at over $2500.00.

2011—FREAK $5.00 Legal Tender Note, series of 1907, Teehee and Burke. Circulated a while despite absence of serial numbers, seal and V, all of which are usually printed in red. Similar errors appear more frequently in the reduced size notes of current vintage; such omissions in the early large notes are rare. Very fine. Certainly worth several hundreds of dollars.

2012—FREAK $1.00 Legal Tender Note, series of 1917, Elliott and Burke (No. D 77019047A, in case you own a note from this sheet). Inverted back, uncirculated.

(I am amazed to find that almost every one of thesc notcs was acquired as strictly uncirculated, with no mention by the cataloguers of soiling, etc. I am trying to give as accurate a description as possible. Still, I urge interested collectors to examine the lots if it is at all possible. I know you will be pleasantly surprised. These notes will all pass for uncirculated.)

UNCUT SHEETS

2589—$1.00. Series of 1928C, Silver Certificate, F 1403. Woods-Woodin. The four corner sheets have frayed edges, mostly minor in nature. Eight notes are perfect and sell at $30.00 each. As a sheet the twelve notes would normally bring close to $500.00. Considering the frayed pieces, I would estimate this lot at closer to $400.00.

2590—$1.00. 1934, Silver Certificate, F 1406. Julian-Morgenthau. Uncommon in sheet form and these notes have low numbers 181-192 inclusive. Here again there are minor imperfections, primarily centering around the four corner notes, one of which has been repaired. Since these uncut sheets are no longer obtainable, they are selling at amazingly high prices without regard for catalogue value.

2591—$1.00. 1935A, Silver Certificate, F 1408. Julian-Morgenthau. Again four notes are imperfect in sheet of twelve, about which the same remarks are applicable.

2592—$1.00. 1935B, Silver Certificate, F 1409. Julian-Vinson. Scarce. Here is a perfect sheet of twelve. Vinson notes are becoming scarce, not many were released, and certainly only very few sheets. Easily worth more than $125.00.

2593—$1.00. Silver Certificates, 1935A with HAWAII surcharge and brown seal. F 2126. Julian-Morgenthau sigs. A perfect sheet of twelve, very scarce; a show-piece indeed. Worth $150.00.

2594—$2.00. Legal Tender, 1928C, red seal, F 1388. Julian-Morgenthau. A very rare uncut sheet of twelve desirable notes (two have small pieces of border missing). Separate notes sell at $12.50 each. As a sheet this is worth over $200.00.

2595—$5.00. Silver Certificates, 1934, F 1414. Julian-Morgenthau. Rare uncut sheet of twelve scarce notes with low numbers 49-60 inclusive. There is an imperfection at the center bottom of the sheet and a small one at the left side. Since each note lists at $17.50 without regard for low numbers or uncut sheets, this lot should bring a very high price, at least $300.00.

UNCUT SHEETS

2597—$10.00. First-Stamford N.B., STAMFORD, Connecticut. All notes are uncirculated and #1. Low Charter #4, F 1426. Each note sells for about $30.00. The sheet should bring $200.00.

2598—$10.00. N.B. of TIFTON, Georgia. All notes uncirculated and #1. Same as above. $200.00.

2599—$5.00. First N.B. of PHILADELPHIA, Pennsylvania. Low charter #1. Unusual sheet of six, each note numbered 012345. F 1425. This sheet should fetch $150.00.

2601—$5.00. First N.B. of Jefferson Parish at GRETNA, Louisiana. A scarce southern note, uncut sheet of six, numbered 1 to 6 inclusive. Worth $135.00.

CUT SHEETS

2602—$1.00. 1928 Legal Tender, red seal, F 1384. Woods-Woodin sigs. Low numbers, 1603-8. Cut sheet of 6 uncirculated notes. These early notes are very scarce. $50.00.

2603—$2.00. 1928-D, Legal Tender, red seal, F 1389. Julian-Morgenthau; cut sheet of 6 consecutive uncirculated notes. $70.00.

2605—$1.00. 1928A, Silver Certificates, blue seal, F 1401. Woods-Mellon. Low numbers 151-6 inclusive. Cut sheet of 6 consecutive notes. $15.00.

2606—$1.00. 1928B, F 1402. Woods-Mills. Cut sheet of 6 consecutive notes. $37.50.

2607—$1.00. 1935B, F 1409. Julian-Vinson. Cut sheet of 6 consecutive notes. $37.50.

2608—$1.00. 1935C, F 1410. Julian-Snyder. Cut sheet of 6 consecutive, uncirculated star notes. Unusual, considering that star notes are used to replace damaged or imperfect notes and are distributed singly. $30.00.

2609—$1.00. 1935A with HAWAII surcharge and brown seal. F 2126, Julian-Morgenthau. Cut sheet of 6 consecutive, uncirculated notes. $45.00.

2610—$1.00. 1935A. Yellow seal, African Invasion notes, F 2127. Julian-Morgenthau. Cut sheet of 6 consecutive, uncirculated notes. $45.00.

2611—$5.00. 1934A, Silver Certificates, yellow seal, African Invasion notes. F 2128. Julian-Morganthau. Cut sheet of 6 consecutive, uncirculated notes. Individual notes sell at $15.00. This set should bring at least $100.00.

FREAK NOTES

2613—$1.00. 1928D. Inverted reverse. Very fine.

2614—$2.00. 1928, red seal. Upper left corner blank (including top half of 2). A tiny corner of border of front is printed on the back of note. Uncirculated, scarce.

2615—$5.00. 1928, red seal. Inverted reverse. Very fine.

2616—$5.00. Similar; freak corner fold, 3/8" strip separating top half of 5 from rest of number. Very fine.

2617—$5.00. National currency, 1929. Mellon N.B. of Pittsburgh. Inverted reverse. Very fine.

2618—$5.00. 1928, Federal Reserve Note, Boston. Inverted reverse. Very fine.

2619—$5.00. Similar, New York. Inverted reverse. Very fine.

2620—$5.00. 1928A. Federal Reserve Note, Chicago. Inverted reverse.

2621—$10.00. 1928B, Federal Reserve Note, New York. Fold caused wide white diagonal streak from top through 1/4 of notes to right side near bottom, separating serial number, legend, borders, etc. Very fine.

2622—$10.00. Similar. Vertical fold caused white streak through T in THE, B in serial number and O in W. O. Woods, as well as borders. Very fine.

2623—$20.00. National Currency, 1929. State National Bank of Frankfort, Kentucky. Low serial #B000251A printed very high in both places, over Woods name at right and above TWENTY DOLLARS at left. The brown seal is correspondingly high. Very fine, scarce.
